"Surely the Sovereign Lord does nothing without revealing his plan to his servants the prophets." (Amos 3 v.7)

A time of grace for Germany

Many prophetic visions and revelations confirm that this is a time of favour and salvation (2 Corinthians 6, v.2) for Germany; the Lord's goodness will be seen in this land (Psalm 27 v.13).

A dream during the night of New Year 2013: by Dirk Roesemeier

I was led into a large room. In the centre of the room stood a large table. The table top had the shape of Germany and looked like a massive map of our country in the colours of our flag – black, red, gold. Nevertheless I could recognise the individual states, regions and cities.

A cloud, much larger than the table top, was slowly descending. It was no ordinary rain cloud. No! It was filled with oil, glistening in colours of gold and silver. The cloud was held together by such a surface tension that not one drop of oil could freely fall from it. The cloud came to rest a few feet above the table.

After a while I saw various clusters of hands coming out of the table, reaching into the cloud. In some places there was just a single hand, in others 5 or 6 hands, 10 to 20 or several hundred hands, and in some areas there were no outstretched hands at all. As the hands touched the cloud, large drops of oil were released onto the hands and flowed over the arms into the hearts of the people who I could now see below. From what they were now saying I knew a great change was taking place and it was clear to me in the dream what was happening within the people.

1. The oil was convicting their hearts of sinful thoughts and actions.
2. The oil was making it easy, through repentance, for them to start living their lives in a new way.
3. The people were showing their love for God in such a way that others in the land, the land itself and I had not seen before.

After meeting with prophetic friends I wanted to know more, especially concerning point 2 above, and asked God for clarification and understanding of the dream and its meaning and purpose in his eyes.

During the night of February 14-15th I had exactly the same dream again but this time God added three details that gave me a clearer picture and some indications as to what was on his heart for our German nation and land.

1. Three single verses and a passage from the Bible were now written on the table.
2. All around the people who had soaked up the oil there were other people who were also drenched with oil, and the land itself had soaked up the oil with its effective power by way of the people. The land had become bright, was getting brighter and was even radiant.

3. The cloud itself was not losing any of its power and was in no way getting smaller. Quite the opposite was happening: it was growing and increasing in intensity and power.

Here are the Bible verses that I saw on the table:

- "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth." (Genesis 1 v.1).
- "But if the LORD brings about something totally new, and the earth opens its mouth and swallows them, with everything that belongs to them, and they go down alive into the realm of the dead, then you will know that these men have treated the LORD with contempt." (Numbers 16 v.30).
- "Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me." (Psalm 51 v.10).
- "But now, this is what the LORD says - he who created you, Jacob, he who formed you, Israel: 'Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have summoned you by name; you are mine. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and when you pass through the rivers, they will not sweep over you. When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not set you ablaze. For I am the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Saviour; I give Egypt for your ransom, Cush and Seba in your stead. Since you are precious and honoured in my sight, and because I love you, I will give people in exchange for you, nations in exchange for your life. Do not be afraid, for I am with you; I will bring your children from the east and gather you from the west. I will say to the north, "Give them up!" and to the south, "Do not hold them back." Bring my sons from afar and my daughters from the ends of the earth - everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made." (Isaiah 43 v.1-7).

Interpretation of the dream – by Ortwin Schweitzer

Prophetic revelations from God always occur in time and space.

In this case the "space" is clear: there was not just a map of Germany lying on a table, but the massive table top itself took the form of a map of Germany. This is unusual and gives the impression that God is saying: "I want to speak to you, Germany, and to your whole identity which is "massive" in my eyes!" Within this identity is the geographical identity – the country, the land, the soil (see later) – and the historical and national identity (represented by the three colours of the flag over the land).

Dick Roesemeier gives the "time" at which God spoke to this land precisely by date, the night of New Year 2013. This is no accident and certainly has something to do with this year of 2013 and that we are entering a new season.

The cloud

For a long time prophetic people have often seen dark clouds over Germany and interpreted these clouds as a burdensome omen from which the country must be set free. This cloud is different: it glistens in gold and silver - the colours of the glory of God. We have prayed for so many years for the presence of God to dwell once more over our land. This is it – the cloud of the presence of God. The cloud descends slowly to within arms' reach. But nothing comes out of this cloud as we would normally expect in the case of low hanging rain clouds. The cloud is holding back, as if waiting for something.

The hands

And then something unexpected happens. "After a while" (how long?), the hands of people come out of the table, just one, a few or more, even in great numbers. And they all do the same: they reach up, searching, longing, until they have obtained what they are seeking: the cloud of God's presence. And they reach in.

This is what the cloud was waiting for. At the moment when a hand touches the cloud, it releases its preciously divine contents and the oil runs golden down the arms of the people, directly into their hearts. "... God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us." (Romans 5 v.5).

Everyone

From the picture we cannot detect any order of preference as far as the hands are concerned. It has more to do with faith: everyone may reach out, and everyone who does reach out experiences the flow of God's love. It is exactly like in times of revival: here a breakthrough, there a breakthrough, individuals are touch by God. Groups reach out, yes, whole church congregations are touched. All without "strategic evangelistic events", but rather where people call out to God – wherever, whoever – they experience God's love.

And in a country-wide outpouring, no single person, no especially anointed preacher stands out. It is God himself who makes people hungry and satisfies their longing. This is the promise of this picture for Germany.

The results

The oil of heaven – the work of the Holy Spirit – has amazing results:

- the hearts of people are touched,
- for this reason penitence is from the heart – that is a radical repentance with an immediate and recognisable change in the way of living: not just an emotional wild-fire experience:
- the centre of wrong values for life, our own thinking, is changed by God's Spirit,
- everything was made easy because of the prevailing spirit of longing for God's presence as well as the rapid change in the hearts of the people.
- The most significant effect of the oil of the Spirit was however the new way in which people were showing their love for God – a love "that others in the land, the land itself and even I had not seen before" – in the prophet's own words!!

In the second dream we are shown how others were receiving the oil of God's Spirit through those who had first received it and so much so that they were "drenched" in oil. The revival is spreading.

The land

The "land" is mentioned twice in the dreams as a separate entity, as a receiver of God's grace. This for many is an unfamiliar concept. For Germans, dealing with this thought is even more difficult because of the mythical "Blood and Soil" ideology of the Nazis. But it is a Biblical concept that "the land" can be spoken to – "...listen, O earth and all who are in it..." (Micah 1 v.2) – "O land, land, land, hear the word of the LORD!" (Jeremiah 22 v.29) – and praises God (Psalm 66).

In our picture the land is amazed by the love of the people and "the land itself had soaked up the oil with its effective power by way of the people". And the result was that "the land had become bright, was getting brighter and was even glowing." This indeed reminds us Romans 8 v.18-27. The land responds to God, its creator, in healing, fruitfulness, fair weather, and it blossoms under revealed blessings. Nature also responds to revival!

The Bible verses

The second dream was at the request of the prophet to better understand what he saw in the picture.

- Genesis 1 v.1 establishes who the Lord of the universe is and who is in charge. He created the visible world (Germany) and the heavenly world (the cloud full of oil).
- Numbers 16 v.30 tells of an extreme case of sin ("that these men have treated the LORD with contempt") and from judgment ("the earth opens its mouth and swallows them"). God's holiness and anger are revealed. God gives us this message as a warning, as a backdrop, to what happens when our sins remain without atonement. This highly charged message is commonly skipped over in Christian preaching in our land.
- In Psalm 51 v.10 God shows us the only way out of the hell of judgment: a yearning to reach out to God and a truly penitent heart.
- Isaiah 43 v.1-7 describes the flow of healing oil into the hearts, the promise of unchanging love. These are the words of the creator and redeemer. This is first a promise to the people of Israel, but the Spirit of God is also giving this word to Germany through the prophet. And we should hear it as he says it:
 - I have created you and have redeemed you – Germany, "you are mine".
 - You will go through dangerous times, but I am with you, so that you will not fail.
 - You are valued by me and privileged above many other nations.

- I have brought your children together from the east and the west, from the south and the north in the reunification of Germany “for my glory”.

These four Bible passages depict in summary form the history of God’s salvation with mankind: creation – fall into sin and judgment – repentance and reconciliation – living under grace. This is the way of God with his world. He creates everything new out of nothing. Here we can have confidence, for ourselves and as the German nation.

The cloud increases

Again it is amazing that as the oil was flowing out into many hearts the cloud was not getting any smaller. On the contrary, it was growing in size and in intensity. The presence of God was ever stronger. The effect of the oil was increasing on the earth and in heaven at the same time. The strength and extent of revival grow in a similar way in the seen and unseen worlds. One strengthens the other. Here we are shown spiritual mysteries that we must know in order to understand what is happening in times of revival.

So how do we now react to such a great picture? Do we believe that the oil cloud of God’s compassion is within reach over Germany? When yes, let us be encouraged and expect the beginning of revival this year in Germany in faith. Let us reach out our hands to the oil cloud, longing for God’s goodness, grace and his Holy Spirit as never before. Let us pray for God’s mercy for deep repentance from the heart and for cleansing penitence in this country.

Further words of prophecy for Germany

Monika Flach: A new season (1)

We are living in a season of a new hunger for God as a real person and the Holy Spirit as a person will also play an important role. Prophets will arise with a new wisdom and authority in 2013 to prepare the way for the Holy Spirit to be poured out on regions and cities.

Walter Penzhorn: Spiritual reality and power

People are open and searching for the spiritual reality and power found only in God’s Word. This is a move of God. If this hunger is not satisfied by Christians and the church, when people do not find spiritual reality there, they will look for it in the esoteric world. But God will instil in the hearts of believers and non-believers a holy dissatisfaction. Intelligent people will no longer be duped and will search for the source of real spiritual power.

Monika Flach: A new season (2)

Since 2009/10 God has been moving many of his people into new positions and places. Do not be concerned but know that God wants to connect you with fellow soldiers over the next five to ten years, when relationships will be the key to growth in your ministry and in God’s kingdom.

- The Lord sets medium and long term goals! Forget short term goals and get engaged where your heart burns.
- “Kiss his son, or he will be angry...” (Psalm 2 v.12): This calls for intimacy – to be on fire ONLY for HIM! Spend much time in worship – a sure way to hold back his judgment!

- God is giving a new revelation about Jesus: “On that day a fountain will be opened to the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to cleanse them from sin and impurity. On that day, I will banish the names of the idols from the land, and they will be remembered no more...” (Zechariah 13 v.1-2).

We urgently need fountains to arise all over this country as we call for repentance and a new way of thinking. Our land is far from God because of the strong influence of humanism. Let us pray for an outpouring of holiness, for cleansing through God’s truth, and courageous preachers with Spirit-filled messages to confront evil in our land.

Markus Egli: Your first love

“The LORD is good to those whose hope is in him, to the one who seeks him.” (Lamentations 3 v.25). Turn back to your first love – the Holy Spirit will revive your love for God. Many Christians will be drawn into a deeper experience of the supernatural working of the Holy Spirit. Spend more time in God’s presence. Seek the fellowship of the Holy Spirit in a new way.

Walter Penzhorn: Unity of leaders

We will see an unexpected unity among political leaders and among church and ministry leaders. The emphasis here is on “unexpected”. They will share visions and beliefs with one another. This is already happening partially in networks, but will be strengthened through prayer and prophetic revelation.

Walter Penzhorn: Youth in Germany

There will be a wave of radical awakening and revival. Unlike the previous generation, the youth will be ready to go out onto the streets.

Note from the editor:

On behalf of the entire Call of the Watchmen team it is my pleasure to present to you my first “Prophetic Page”. For us, as intercessors, prophecy helps us to see and hear more clearly in the Spirit so that we are better able to pray from God’s perspective and from the realms of his glory.

“Do not treat prophecies with contempt but test them all; hold on to what is good...” (1 Thess. 5 v.20-21) - so that we can pray for Germany with renewed passion, with new insight and wisdom, and act upon them in Jesus’ Name.

God’s blessings from Markus Egli
